

STOP THE SLEAZE

says Alan Tormey

On Thursday 4th May neighbours will have the chance to Vote for Change or continue with a Labour Council riddled with abuse of power, dubious asset sales at knockdown prices, allegations of corruption and devastating financial incompetence.

HERE ARE A FEW OF THE HEADLINES

Former Deputy Mayor had 17 car park fines cancelled by the “back door”

Two former Cabinet members 7 & 4 tickets cancelled through the “back door”

£16 million extra costs due to failure review energy contracts

As much as £100m of public money is believed to have been squandered by a “dysfunctional” council at the centre of corruption allegations. The Guardian 25th March 2021

MATCH PARKING SCANDAL

BICo was a council-run company that managed two match-day car parks, supposedly to reinvest the cash in the local community, but a preliminary report shows among other things, unreceipted takings, discrepancies between expected and reported parking levels and the use of cash for things such as providing a job for the one of the councillors involved in the running of the company.

The report was only made public after the intervention of the Governments Information Commissioner’s Office.

Millions of Pounds wasted and squandered could of been spent on improving schools, education local roads improvements.

“On Thursday 4th May you are voting for a local council not a government”

Northway Recreational Ground Improvements

After years of lobbying the Council by Cllr Alan Tormey, Northway Recreational Ground has had some well needed improvements. This includes shallow water scrape with planting and steppingstones in a damp and underused area of the site.

Cllr Alan Tormey said "I am really delighted to see how these improvements have come to life. I constantly lobbied the Council to make these improvements as this seemed like a forgotten site. I am pleased £80,000 was allocated to ensure this site is no longer forgotten."

ROAD RESURFACING

Councillor Alan Tormey has lobbied for improvements to Several roads in the area. resurfacing is now being made to Bowring Park Road & Beech Tree Road.

ALLOTMENT SUCCESS

Sturdee Road Allotment have seen improvements for disability access

Cllr Alan Tormey said: "I have work with the allotment committee for around 4 years and supported these updates/improvements through my share of Council Funding. We have made improvements by assisting with garden equipment and disability access."
